

Spring Camp Cheerio and North Carolina Cued Speech Association

Beginner Cued Speech Class- Introduction to Cued American English

This class will be taught via Zoom. The course will present all Cued Speech handshapes and placements and will cover basic information needed to implement the system independently. You will leave with an understanding of how to cue words and phrases.

This class will be taught by Nationally Certified Instructor Kate Van Valey, M.A.

Schedule: 6-week course on Sundays 6:30pm-8:30pm, times are EST.

- Sunday August 22nd
- Sunday August 29th
- (Skip Labor Day Weekend)
- Sunday September 12th
- Sunday September 19th
- Sunday September 26th
- Sunday October 3rd

The class is taught in spoken English and is intended for adults and teenagers ages 16 and up. Registration closes Friday, August 20th at 12:00 noon (EST) (or whenever registration reaches class capacity).

This course is progressive; each lesson is built on successful completion of prior lessons. Zoom space is limited. Respecting this opportunity for all those who want to participate, your registration confirms you can attend all sessions.

The link to register is here <https://forms.gle/fMYQsGxSGXq1AHq49>

Thanks to the National Cued Speech Association for sponsoring this class. The course fee is waived for deaf/hoh individuals, family members of deaf/hoh cuers and educators/professionals in fields supporting deaf/hoh children and adults. The course fee is reduced to $25 for all others.

You may pay the $25.00 class fee on our camp website via the Pay-Pal Donate Now button <https://springcampcheerio.org/>

Any questions email at: Courtney Poole courtney.poole85@gmail.com

Thank you to our sponsors NCSA, Language Matters and NCRID.
NCRID is the RID CEU Sponsor for this class.

