INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Directors of
National Cued Speech Association

I have audited the accompanying financial statements of National Cued Speech Association (a nonprofit organization), which comprise the statements of financial position as of August 31, 2021, and the related statements of activities and changes in net assets, functional expenses and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

My responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on my audits. I conducted my audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that I plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement. An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in their circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion of the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, I express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of financial statements.

I believe that the audit evidence I have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my audit opinion.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

AUGUST 31, 2021

Note 1 – Organization and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

National Cued Speech Association (“the Organization”) was formed in Rockville, Maryland in 1982, as a not-for-profit organization, to serve the needs of parents and special educators working with children who are deaf and hearing impaired. The NCSA is primarily an advocacy organization and focuses on outreach, family and educator support, as well as community-based education in the form of cue camps and sponsored workshops. The NCSA also provides instructor certification for teaching cued speech classes.

Basis of Accounting

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared in accordance with standards for not-for-profit organizations adopted by the Financial Accounting Standards Board. They are stated on the accrual basis of accounting whereby expenses are recorded when incurred and donations are recorded when received.

The Organization is governed by a volunteer Board of Directors who oversee the Organization’s operations. All directors are independent. Revenues to support the Organization are primarily received from donations of cash.

The Organization reports information regarding its financial position and activities according to two classes of net assets: net assets with donor restrictions and net assets without donor restrictions.

Cash Equivalents

NCSA considers temporary cash investments with a maturity date of three months or less when purchased to be cash equivalents. The carrying amount reported in the statements of financial position for cash and cash equivalents approximate their fair value.

Contributions

Contributions received are recorded as net assets with donor restrictions or net assets without donor restrictions depending on the existence or nature of any donor restrictions.

Income Taxes

The Internal Revenue Service has determined that NCSA is a tax-exempt organization under Internal Revenue Code section 501(c)(3); accordingly, no provision for income taxes has been reflected in the accompanying financial statements.

Concentrations of Credit Risk

The Organization has three bank accounts at a local bank. The accounts are insured, up to $250,000 by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. In addition, the Organization has a cash account in the amount of $44,848 at Fidelity Investments. The Organization has not experienced any losses and believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risk on cash.

Note 2 – Liquidity Management

NCSA's financial assets available within one year of the balance sheet date for general expenditures are as follows:

| | |
|------------|------------------|
| Cash | $ 50,047 |
| Investment | $ 33,000 |
| Total | $ 83,047 |

The Organization has a goal to maintain cash on hand to meet sixty days of ordinary business expenses. The Organization has a policy to structure its financial assets to be available as its general expenditures, liabilities and other obligations come due. The cash at August 31, 2021 ($83,047) is sufficient to cover all expenses for the year ended August 31, 2022. It is anticipated that there will be additional funding for the year ending August 31, 2022. The investment of $33,000, which is liquid, can also be utilized as needed.

On July 23, 2020, the Organization borrowed $43,000 from the SBA. The Note was paid back on June 2, 2021.

Note 4 – Loan Payable – Payroll Protection Program (PPP)

The Organization received a PPP loan of $5,000 in the fiscal year ended August 31, 2020, from the SBA. The loan has subsequently been forgiven.
